Meeting Support Services

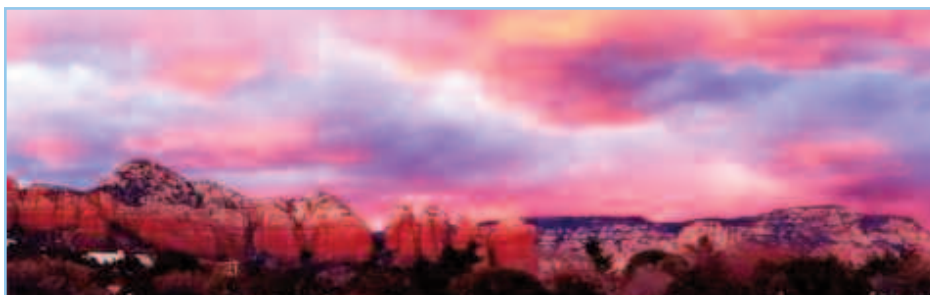

As Arizona's premier, full-service destination and event management company, AZA Events offers more than 20 years of experience in creating custom-designed programs for corporate, incentive, and association groups. Their intimate knowledge of the destination ensures that every aspect of your program to "The Valley of the Sun" is executed with nothing less than an extraordinary experience.

Understanding the strategic objectives of each client with whom they partner is key to the successful execution of each custom designed program. AZA is known in finding the "Jewels of the Desert" of things that must be seen, can't be missed and must be experienced. AZA Events offers a wide selection of services from personalized "White Glove" ground transportation, professional certified guides, high adventure excursions, sightseeing tours to special spousal programs such as hot air ballooning over the lush Sonoran Desert, off-roading hummer tours, river rafting, kayaking down the Verde River, saddling up for a cattle drive to a plethora of city and cultural tours. As the regional Ambassadors of Arizona, AZA Events is here to fulfill any group's needs in creating unique teambuilding experiences, locating distinctive venues for themed events, to finding the greatest restaurants and dine-arounds for any size group are among their specialties. Every need from distinctive themed decor events to entertainment is flawlessly executed with imagination, professionalism, and enthusiasm. AZA Events is your resident expert, offering you exceptional value through their extensive local knowledge and well-established relationships..

AZA Events represents a never ending resource for fresh ideas in the Grand Canyon State. Offering a single dedicated point of contact throughout the visit, clients needn't worry about a single detail. Voted "Best DMC of the West" by Meetings West Magazine, AZA Events offers superior destination and event management in one of North America's most coveted destinations – the desert southwest.
